Introduction of Whitefield

*Whitefield is the Birth Place of Information Technologies and is a suburb of Bangalore in the state of Karnataka, India. It is a planned development near Bengaluru that was developed with the intention of attracting major global technology players. It is renowned for Satya Sai Baba's ashram called Brindavan and is a haven for a number of multinational information technology companies.

*Until the late 1980s, Whitefield was a small village which was a retirement colony of Anglo-Indians. It has since become a major hub for the Indian Technology Industry.

*The Export Promotion Industrial Park (EPIP) at Whitefield is one of the country's first information technology parks- International Tech park, Bangalore (ITPB) which houses offices of many IT and ITES companies.

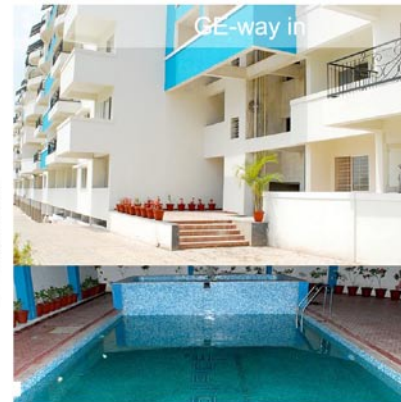

*The EPIP zone also has offices of other IT & R&D giants like TCS, Accenture, Symbian, GE, Wipro, GE medical systems, iGate, Global Solutions, AlignBiz Technologies Pvt Ltd, Sapient, Manhantan Associates, SAP Labs, Perot Systems, Dell, IBM, Intel, United Telecoms, Infinite, Delphi R&D, UL, Tesco, MAKINO and Oracle.

* Now Whitefield is officially part of Bangalore city with it being included into BBMP (Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike) Whitefield also has major medical facilities such as the Satya Sai Baba hospital which specializes in cardiovascular and neurological surgeries. White field started seeing a boom in Residential construction.
